I know my bad side.
I don't like it, either
But when I hear my bad side from others' judgement
I dislike myself more
Don't be driven by the crowd
When others judge others it's not always right. They tend to get carried away all the time. Besides, bad sides can be good sides depending on who defines you.

What good is a personality if it doesn't have dignity, fear and manner ?
Of course, it is good ! It's your good side !
Forget it.
I don't need sympathy like that.
It's not sympathy !
No fear
No dignity
No manner
Can't you get it ?
what?
When you lose the three elements

You are invincible !
No one can beat you
You can accompl sh anyth ng when you go berserk

What if an accident occurs ?
I would have stopped you before anything happens
When you told us that you want to cancel the contract in case your actions would cause us troubles
I realized
You are not a bad person
If anything happens
It's probably not caused by your will
It was not your fault
